Welborn Notes.

The Welborn school opens Monday, September 20th, with Prof. Griffin Hall as principal and Miss Bessie Roberts, assistant.

Mrs. W. L. Rogers and son, Master Rozzie, paid Live Oak a flying visit Saturday.

Mrs. W. A. Tison and daughter, Miss Mattie, visited Live Oak last week.

Mr. James, representing Adams Bros., of Lake City, was a prominent business visitor this week.

Miss Rixford Bell, the charming sales lady for the McLeran Mercantile Co., accompanied her sister, Mrs. J. F. Hill to Live Oak Thursday.

W. B. Howell was in town shopping this week.

Mrs. N. M. McLeran, of Tampa, and Mrs. Chas. Hardie also of Tampa, returned home Thursday after a delightful visit to relatives here.

The Rev. F. P. Jernigan was a visitor in Lake City Friday.

Herbert Kennedy spent Saturday in Live Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Moore entertained Thursday night of last week in honor of Miss Lizzie Hardie. All report an enjoyable time. Mrs. Moore is a charming hostess and understands the art of entertaining to perfection.

A. H. Jones, formerly bookkeeper for the McLeran Mercantile Co., left Monday for points in Virginia, and it is expected that he will locate there. Mr. Jones made a host of friends during his short stay here who regret to see him go away.

W. J. Carter, of Americus, Ga., has accepted the position as bookkeeper for the McLeran Mercantile Co. Mr. Carter comes highly recommended and we believe the above firm are fortunate in securing his services. For the benefit of the young ladies, we are told that Mr. Carter is still in "single blessedness."

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Carver, who have resided in Jacksonville for the past year, returned Tuesday and will occupy the Wenell cottage. Mr. Carver takes charge of the Union Mfg. Co.'s interest here.

W. B. Zachery visited Live Oak Friday and rode the "goat" in a high Masonic degree.

A. J. Miller, of Beulah, was in town shopping Saturday.

A. C. Selph has gone on a fishing jaunt with some friends to Dead Man's Bay.

Mrs. J. F. Hill and little daughter, Erin, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bell, left Thursday for Largo, her home.

F. L. Walters was a business visitor in Live Oak last Friday.

Uncle King Stockton, age 80, an old time dorkie, was in town Saturday. Uncle King works every day and makes a crop every year which is remarkable for one of his age.

Misses Jennie and Lizzie Camp, of White Springs, and Miss Kate Webb, of White Springs, passed through Welborn Sunday en route to Hollins, Va., to enter school.

W. E. Floyd, one of Suwannee county's prominent farmers and business men, is reported to be very ill.

The Woodmen of the World will unveil the monument to the late Robt. A. Hawkins, at Beulah church, five miles from Welborn the afternoon of the 4th Sunday in September. All Woodmen are requested to meet at the hall in Welborn at 1 o'clock in order to attend in a body.

Al. Carver, an old Welbornite, passed through Monday en route to West Florida on business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hansell visited Mrs. H. W. Moseley's family Sunday.

J. B. Dowling was a prominent visitor in town Tuesday.

Ambrose Oliff left Sunday night for a pleasure and business visit to Jacksonville and Pablo Beach.

Dr. T. J. Hackney was a prominent visitor in Live Oak Monday.

Dr. J. E. Pennington paid Lake Ogden a professional visit Tuesday.

D. E. McDonald, who was reported sick last week, we are glad to announce is able to be at his post of duty, but we regret to say that his wife is now quite sick, though at present is improving.

Watch out for Welborn, she is coming to the front—Where's the Bank?

Miss Eva Cushman, of Denmark, S. C., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Cook, left Saturday for Mulberry, for a visit to her brother before returning to South Carolina.

J. H. Cook & Sons saw mill is running full time now and turning out some fine lumber.

Newburn Notes.

The singing at Rocky Sink was well attended last Saturday. All present seemed to enjoy themselves very much. There are only two more days until the present term will close. All are cordially invited to attend our closing exercises, September 19th.

C. C. Johnson and G. A. Howse were in Live Oak last Saturday on business.

Miss Stella Williams was among the school teachers who attended the teachers' meeting at Live Oak, Saturday.

The Newburn school will close September 24th. All are invited to attend our closing exercises.

Quarterly meeting will convene at Wesley Chapel next Saturday. All are invited to come and bring well-filled baskets. There will be dinner on the ground for all—come.

T. Williams organized a singing class at Clayland last Saturday, and will sing again on Thursday, Friday and Saturday before the first Sunday in October.

Messrs. Will and Albert Johnson and Bill Whately, Jr., were in town Saturday on business.

Cypress Lake "Recorder."

Friday, Sept. 10, '09.

Everything is running along smoothly at the present writing.

School is still progressing nicely with Miss Boatright as teacher. Everything is in perfect harmony and all striving for an education.

Little Pearl Wilson is back in school again after several days' absence, caused by sore eyes. She seems to be better now, and we trust this malady won't hinder others from attending school.

Herbert Wilder is on the sick list. We hope he will soon be well and able to come to school again.

Mr. Chesley Roberts leaves today for Wakulla county, where he will take charge of a school there. He is one of our school boys and we will miss him, but we know that he is fulfilling a high calling and therefore we wish him much success.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Boatright were visitors Saturday and Sunday at the residence of Mr. H. Holtzclaw. They were visiting their daughter, who is teaching the school at that place. They reported a good time.

Mr. Thomas Knight made his return from the bay again this week. Fish seemed to be scarce down there. I think he only brought about one hundred back with him.

D. H. Wilson visited our school last Friday afternoon. We were very proud for him to visit us.

The agricultural class seems to be taking more interest now than formerly. I think we should make this one of our choice studies.

LILLIE DREW HOLTZCLAW,
Editor of Cypress Lake Recorder for the week ending Sept. 10, 1909.

Branford News.

Branford, Sept. 14.—As we have not seen anything from this place in a good while, we thought we would give you a few notes. Cotton market is brief in our town, and the farmers are bringing in a good lot of the staple for which they are receiving a good price.

Messrs. Newbern, Davis, Cutting and Cox, of Branford, and Mr. O. P. Williams, of O'Brien, left here this morning at 11:10 a. m. aboard the launch, "Hamiltonion," for the mouth of Suwannee river and other intermediate points. We wish them a pleasant trip, and plenty of fish and game.

The young people of this place were given a social at Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Martin's last Saturday night. Quite a number were present, and all had a very nice time dancing and playing games until 11 o'clock, when they retired to the dining room and were served with refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, which they all enjoyed, after which they left for their homes.

Quite a number of our boys and girls took a trip down the Suwannee river to the mouth of Santafee, Monday, aboard the launch, "Eloise." We hope they all enjoyed their trip.

Miss Nellie McIntosh, of Luraville, is visiting her relatives of this place, Capt. Bob Ivey and family.

Two Misses Rowel, of Macon, Ga., are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Will George, of this place.

SUWANNEE CRACKER.

Two Shiek Thieves Caught.

Welborn, Sept. 14.—Monday morning Marshal R. M. Carver received a telephone message from D. G. Rivers to look out for two negroes, named Hodge and Joiner, who had stolen a pocket-book containing twenty dollars. Mr. Carver found the two men leasurly taking in Welborn, and landed them in the Live Oak jail.

The city council of Kissimmee has passed an ordinance calling special bonding election to vote upon the issuance of bonds for a municipal water-works plant. The date has not yet been fixed.
